2015 Website Program Description

Lifeline® is a unique and powerful program that takes you into profound states of consciousness using Hemi-Sync® audio guidance technology. Explore Focus Levels 23 - 27, specific states of awareness associated with the afterlife state. Discover how to enter into these states of consciousness, comfortably make contact with people who have passed over, perform "rescues and retrievals," and return at will. In addition, discover techniques to direct healing energies to those still embodied.

I AM READY TO EXPLORE!

Don't take our word for it. Here are what our past participants have to say about their experience with us.

"Retrieving a part of oneself is a bittersweet experience. An emptiness that you may not have been aware of is filled. Intense sadness that this part had to split off coexists with strong, loving feelings toward her. You are so happy to have her back, because she is you. By retrieving and merging with a lost part, you become more yourself than you were before. And the more yourself you become, the more innate self-confidence you have." ~ Mary T.

"The second Lifeline was a totally different but equally powerful and effective learning expansion. I experienced a tremendous amount of contact and retrieval activity...the program was a total success for me. In the past, contacts had usually been spontaneous communications related to relatives and friends. Now others were making contact. It felt fulfilling to have opened to this transmitting partnership." ~ Micki H.

"Lifeline was a special experience. It was oddly enough grounding for me helping lost souls find the life, I had no idea I could be of service in that way. Great Stuff!" ~ Ken G.

"The TMI Lifelines program was/is invaluable to me as it provided the tools processes to assist to others and still does. I would repeat this program several times over in order to perfect the skill and help as many "lost" souls as possible." ~ Larry R.

"Lifeline not only gave me tools to help others but through the process of helping others, provided me with valuable insight about myself. This caused me to become less judgmental and more open to life's possibilities." ~ Karen R.

"The Monroe Institute provides a quality experience at reasonable cost for week-long retreats that change and enhance your life and consciousness." ~ K. Peerey

"How shocked was I to find that I could actually help dead people move on to higher levels? That I could sometimes rush to Google my phone and find enough verification to keep my jaw hanging open and my confidence growing? That during group retrievals we saw each other doing specific things that we confirmed when debriefing?

Of course I say this after every TMI program but Lifelines? Best TMI intensive ever. I continue to do the work with amazing results, adventures, like the retrieval I did of a little drummer boy so proud that he was a "good healer" on a Fredericksburg, VA battle field? How wonderful to have learned a new skill in a field I didn't even realize existed and to be able to be of service in this magical universe we are blessed to live in!" ~ B. Etheridge
